FINDING MY MICHIGAN ROOTS: SARAH F. BALDWIN BENSON, 1850 - 1935

Contributed by Carolyn L. Griffin, Ypsilanti, Michigan

Little was known of Sarah F. Baldwin, the second great-grandmother of Earnest E. Griffin, when this research was begun. Her maiden name appeared on a lovely old photograph held by Benson relatives, but no family stories hinted at her origins. Her second marriage was not known until her application for a Civil War widow's pension was examined. Further research in public records has revealed the facts. The strength of character of this lady who traveled in her lifetime from New York State to the west coast can only be surmised.

Sarah F. Baldwin was born 17 April 1850 in Allen, Alleghany County, New York. She was the daughter of Daniel W. Baldwin born 1808 in Connecticut and Evalinda Cooper Baldwin born 1823 in New York. She first appeared at the age of one month in the 1850 New York census record with Daniel W. Baldwin, 42, a carpenter and joiner with $780.00 worth of property, Evalinda, 27, Charlotte E., 10, Miron, 8, and sister Demeris, 4.

The family later moved to Michigan. Sarah's older brother Myron Baldwin was granted a homestead certificate on 20 May 1862 in Wexford County. The 1880 Wexford County, Michigan, census revealed Myron was 37, born in New York, and resided in Wexford Township with wife Rose age 30 of Pennsylvania and their children Lulu, 5, and Maud, 1, born in Michigan. They continued living in Wexford County until the 1900 census where they had moved to Brant Township, Grand Traverse County. Daniel and Evalinda appeared in the 1870 and 1880 census and Evalinda continued living there with her adopted son William, after Daniel's death 17 November 1890 in Wexford County.

Sarah married Irvin Waterman Benson, who was born in 1839 in Orwel, Vermont, on 11 April 1868 in Manistee County, Michigan. She was 17 and he was 29 at the time of the marriage. Ervin had enlisted at the age of 22, on 17 September 1861 in Warren, Macomb County, in Michigan Company H, second Reg't, Volunteer Cavalry during the Civil War. He was described as 5'9" tall with light hair and complexion and blue eyes. He was mustered 2 October 1861 and he re-enlisted 5 January 1864 at Mossy Creek, Tennessee. He was mustered 29 March 1864, promoted to a corporal 5 January 1864, and to sergeant on 1 November 1864. He was wounded at Columbia, Tennessee, in the fall of 1862 and discharged 1 August 1865 in Macon, Georgia.

Sarah and Irvin Benson had eight children: a male child not named born 5 February 1870 who died 10 February 1870; Edgar Daniel born 3 April 1871 who later became a blacksmith in Harlan, Michigan; Elvira Winogene born 18 April 1873 who married Nelson H. Richmond 4 May 1890 and who died 21 May 1948; Rose born 14 August 1877; Fred born 30 June 1879 who died in an avalanche; Marcus born 10 April 1881 who married Maud F. Crawford 15 November 1908 in Wexford County; Nellie Maria born 26 April 1883; and Charlotte (Lottie) born 26 August 1885 who married Edward M. Farnsworth 14 October 1902 in Sherman, Wexford County.

Sarah's sister Demarious C. Dean, the wife of William E. Dean, sold land to Sarah on 8 July 1879. Sarah sold land between 1881 and 1891 to William B. Brown and her son Edgar D. Benson in Wexford County.

After Irvin's death of Bright's disease on 15 August 1891 in Wexford County at the age of 52, Sarah married Joseph McDaniel on 24 March 1896. On 7 September 1889, she applied for a widow's pension. She was then 46 years old and listed her children Mark, Nellie, and Lottie in the application.

On 14 July 1896 Sarah requested guardianship of the minor children to be granted to both her and her new husband Joseph McDaniel. Listed were the minor children Mark Benson, 15, Nellie, 13, and Lottie, 11. This was granted in the Wexford County courthouse. They were listed in the 1900 Wexford County census as Joseph McDaniels, 67, born March 1834 in West Virginia, Sarah F., 50, born April 1850 in New York, Mark Benson, 18, born April 1882 in Michigan, and Nellie Benson, 17, born April 1883 in Michigan. They had been married four years and owned a farm free of mortgage. She was the mother of eight children, seven who were living. Joseph McDaniel died 29 June 1901.

Sarah's daughter Nellie Mingus stated in an affidavit dated 22 June 1918 that Sarah "...resided in Bagnall, Michigan, until September 22, 1907, when she went to Rose Lake, Idaho, and that she moved from there to Chewelan (Stevens County), Washington, on April 3rd, 1909, where she has resided ever since...." She did visit her family several times in Michigan and Idaho after that time. Sarah F. Baldwin Benson McDaniel died at the age of 86 years, 11 months, and 19 days on 6 March 1935 at 928 Key Street in Bellingham, Whatcom County, Washington, of myocarditis and old age.

BOOK REVIEW: THE RUFUS PARKS PEDIGREE

Contributed by Marcia McCrary, Ypsilanti, Michigan

The LDS/GSWC Library has a new book by Brian J.L. Berry, titled The Rufus Parks pedigree, seventeen centuries of one family's ancestry. The book is available from the author at P.O. Box 83-2130, Richardson, Texas 75083.

Major chapters cover Robert Parke. the immigrant ancestor (1630, Mass.), and his wife, Martha Chaplin and their forebears; Thomas Parke and Dorothy Thompson (including her royal lines); Nathaniel Parke and Sarah Geer with her disputed English ancestry; Joseph Parks and Mary Smith; Smith Parke and the Davis pedigree; and Joseph Parks and Abigail Rowley. I suppose I am so excited about this book because the first five chapters are about my ancestors. The Joseph Parks and Abigail Rowley chapter is also fascinating to me because of their Crippen connections, which stirs up my concern with Superior Township research.

Dr. Berry includes many heraldry devices, charts, pictures and maps. His thought processes and research are easy to follow, and very thorough. I hope you will have a chance to browse through this interesting book.

OBITUARY OF SALLY (...) NOBLE DANIELS

Contributed by Barbara Snow, Ann Arbor, Michigan

From the Michigan Argus February 18, 1871 "Local Brevities" column we find the following death notice; [] indicates that the text was unreadable.

> Mrs. SALLY NOBLE, widow of the late []HANIEL DANIELS and mother of Mrs. GRAY and Mrs. STEPHENS, of Dexter, [] at the residence of Dr. GRAY, on the [] inst., aged 85 years. The deceased had []ded in Dexter since 1825 and was gen[]lly respected and beloved.

Further on the page is a more complete obituary, reprinted by the Michigan Argus from one originally published in a neighboring newspaper.

> An obituary notice in the Dexter Leader gives the following sketch of Mrs. SALLY DANIELS, who died at the residence of her son-in-law, Dr. AMOS GRAY, on the 6th inst., in the 85th year of her age.
> Mrs. Daniels was one of the oldest settlers of Washtenaw county. She was twice married --her first husband being Mr. Sylvanus Noble, who came to Ann Arbor in 1823 and assisted in erecting the first log shanties there, among which was the old Rumsey Log Tavern. Mrs. Noble and the family followed him in the fall of 1824, and removed to Dexter the following year. The late Judge Samuel W. Dexter was the only person then settled here, and for two years they were on the extreme frontier--there being no white settlers between them and Lake Michigan--experiencing all the dangers and privations of frontier life. In May, 1829, her husband died, leaving her in the wilderness to provide for six children; but she was possessed of wonderful courage and fortitude, relying faithfully, as she did, on her Heavenly Father for strength. In 1843 she was married to Nathaniel Daniels, and time again left a widow in 1851; since that time she has resided with her son-in-law, Dr. Gray. The deceased was the mother of Rev. Louis L. and Frank E. Noble, of Jersey City, and Mrs. Dr. Gray and Mrs. Stephens, of this place; who though deeply bereaved, yet have the assurance that she died as she lived, possessed of a "peace that passeth understanding"--" in the sure hope of a blessed immortality." She was a faithful and consistent member of the Episcopal church, and her life has been one of self sacrifice to her God. Though she had suffered much from sickness in late years, yet her patience and resignation will ever be remembered by her children, who will cherish her sainted memory and rise up to call her blessed.

LUCKY?

Research by Bob Wurtz, Ann Arbor, Michigan

Luck is part of it, maybe ninety per cent, but that other ten percent, that's the blood, sweat and tears part of genealogical research. And its that ten percent that really counts when the chips are down. That's the way it was when I decided that even though my great-grandfather (maternal) had been in the country less (?) than ten years when he died, he might still have left a will that was admited to probate. He did! THe probate court records hamed all of the relatives in Alsace-Lorraine who might have a claim on his estate. But was it luck that had caused me to buy tickets to Frankfort (Germany) three months earlier? At least it was in time sufficient to give up on a Eurorail Pass and opt for renting a car since the two small towns mentioned in the probate document were not reachable by public transportation.

But they were reachable by our rented and and reach them we did, although we drew a blank in the first of the two hamlets mentioned in that probate file. (In bilingual regions, why can't one of the languages be English?) In the second hamelt, in lovely French countryside, we had less of a language barrier until we got to the house to which we had been directed. Pidgin French and fractured German were not mucn help until it was recognized that "Urs Grossvater Francois" and "great granduncle Frantz' were one and the same. Hello, third cousin!

That same evening cousin Joseph presented us with a copy of the ancestry extending back to 1690 when six brothers left Luxembourg. And it was that same evening that arrangements were made for us to visit some gentleman in a neighboring village, the purpose of which we did not understand, our French having already been severely tested, found wanting and regretted.

In the morning we met that gentleman, Adolph Gambs, whose official, if any responsibility we never learned. M. Gambs, however, had been up early and had found and extended the ancestry ot cousin Joseph to include the relative who had emigrated to America. We met M. Gambs in his home, one room of which served as a library for notebooks which must have encompassed most of th early life (births, christenings, marriages and deaths) of the region. But his collection was not complete for we were then taken to a nearby village where the civil records were searched to show that my great-grandfather was legitimate, having been born of a marriage which had been duly recorded.

Home again, it was time to dig into the paternal side, about which little was known but it was suspected that since none of the censuses indicated home ownership, a probate search would probably produce naught. Since the paternal grandfather had two sisters who married two brothers, logic suggested that looking for descendants of the brothers might be fruitful. After all, with two brothers who were named Isch, anyone of the same name might very well be a descendant. Letters to the eighteen Isches in the Buffalo telephone book produced one answer, profitable only in that it led to another, a nee Isch, who had what knowledge there was of European origin. BINGO! It turned out to be accurate knowledge although frustrating.

We had passed within seven kilometres of Baiersbronn in county Freudenstadt in Wurttemberg, the town and county which she believed was the birthplace of my grandfather and her great-grandmother (my grea-aunt). There were only two entries in the Familh History Library catalog for Baiersbronn, But what a listing: the genealogical registers from 1608 through 1842. The first examination was disapointing.

There was no Wurtz listed.

Three days later, a 25 cent publication dispelled the gloom and doom. Perhaps, probably, it should have been recognized earlier that in German, tz and z sound alike and thus can be interchangeable: Ergo; Wurtz = Wurz. A return to the Baiersbronn genealogical register led straight (allowing for the problems with German script of several ministers) to the year 1751 and actually, with diligence (?) probably back to the seventeenth century since it was parents who were listed on the 1751 page.

But maybe that ninety per cent isn't all luck. Some of it is possibly disappointment which makes the ten percent all the more gratifying, at the pay off.
